

Outstanding Community Service Award 2013

Community leaders and partners are vital asset to community action agencies. Your agency has an opportunity to recognize an outstanding community partner at the 2013 MACA Annual Conference!

They are the unsung heroes that dedicate their time and lend their expertise to fulfill the vision of community action.

Your designee for the Outstanding Community Service Award may be a business, organization, community volunteer, board member, political figure or any other community partner that you feel has made a considerable contribution in your community.
