Community Development Support Association Hosting International Wine Tour Fundraiser

Community Development Support Association (CDSA) is hosting an International Wine Tour fundraiser at the Non-Profit Center in Enid on March 5.

“We wanted to have a signature fundraising event and we wanted to do something new and interesting,” said Executive Director Cheri Ezzell.

This will be the second year for the event. Last year about 200 attended with proceeds going to early childhood programs. This year, proceeds will benefit the YouthBuild program.

“YouthBuild made wine racks and other wooden items for the auction and we have art and glassware, special wines and cheeses,” Ezzell added.

Community partners are Corks which is a local liquor store that provides the wine at cost and Panevino which is a restaurant that plans the menu.

Corks provides wine experts for the event and wine information for the “passport” provided to attendees.

“We also have ‘table sponsors’ who pay a premium for a reserved table in the ‘country’ of their choice,” Ezzell explained.

“We also have a ‘wine pull’ where we wrap bottles of wine and a $20 donation gets you a chance to pull one bottle,” Ezzell added.

Some wines are fairly inexpensive and some are quite expensive.

Ezzell said she is a wine and food lover and thought there would be others who would enjoy this kind of event.

The Non-Profit Center is beautiful and Ezzell feels it lends itself to this kind of event. During the event, people have to go from place to place to try the wine and food and get their passport stamped at each country. Each area is decorated to represent that country.

“We strive for an elegant appearance.”

Tickets are $75. Call 580-242-6131 to reserve.
