

MACAA Welcomes New State Association Executive Director - Nicole W. Claiborne

MACCA is pleased to announce that Nicole W. Claiborne joined us on July 1st as the Executive Director. Prior to joining MACCA, she was the Operations Director for Social Work p.r.n. and Divisional Social Services Director for the Salvation Army/Alabama, Mississippi, & Louisiana Divisional Headquarters.

Mrs. Claiborne has more than 26 years of experience in the nonprofit sector. She serves on the weatherization advisory council and was appointed as the low-income advocate representing the State of MS at LIHEAP Day in Washington, DC.

She earned a Bachelor and Master's Degree in Social Work from Jackson State University where she was a Minority Access to Research Careers (MARC-Alcohol, Drug Abuse, Mental Health Administration) scholar. She was a research fellow at the University of California Irvine.

She and her husband, Mark, are proud parents of two sons, Mark and Chandler.

'Ms. Claiborne has brought 3 E's to the Mississippi Association of Community Action Agencies (MACAA) with her which include, but not limited to 'Experience, Enthusiasm, and Excitement' – Sheletta Buckley, Executive Director, South Central Community Action Agency, MACCAA President and SEACAA Board Member.

<http://msacaa.com/>